

Remind the people to be subject to rulers and authorities, to be obedient, to be ready to do whatever is good, to slander no one, to be peaceable and considerate, and always to be gentle toward everyone. Titus 3:1-2

Seven Qualities of a Remarkable Citizen

Part 1

1. Submissive in attitude.

Are you fighting or submitting to the guidelines proposed by the federal, state and local authorities?

2. Obedient in behavior.

Do you agree with the statement that Christians should be the highest examples of responsible citizenship?

3. Benevolent in spirit.

How are you as a church promoting responsible benevolence to the needy in your community?

Remind the people to be subject to rulers and authorities, to be obedient, to be ready to do whatever is good, to slander no one, to be peaceable and considerate, and always to be gentle toward everyone. Titus 3:1-2

Seven Qualities of a Remarkable Citizen

Part 2

4. Speaks well of everyone.

How are you encouraging responsible rhetoric and focused prayers for leaders, authorities, and all people?

5. Is peaceable.

What can you do to promote peace in the midst of all this crisis?

6. Practice consideration for others.

How does practical consideration make the gospel attractive to your community?

7. Humble in attitude.

How can you specifically this week grow in humble dependence on the Lord?

Why are we called to be remarkable, gospel-centered citizens?

This is a trustworthy saying. And I want you to stress these things, so that those who have trusted in God may be careful to devote themselves to doing what is good. These things are excellent and profitable for everyone.

Titus 3:8
